Downtown Vancouver Boasts New Corevision Screens

Bonnis Media CoreVision Inc. has launched two giant Diamond Vision video screens at the corner of Granville and Robson streets in the entertainment and shopping district of downtown Vancouver.

The videos screens are expected to help revitalize Granville Street, and will play an important role in informing and entertaining the public of Vancouver. The two Corevision screens, mounted side by side on the corner of 798 Granville are each 15 feet by 20 feet, and display the latest LED technology from Mitsubishi and Diamond Vision.

Advertising on the screens is handled by Bonnis Media CoreVision for advertisers within B.C., and the Outdoor Broadcast Network, Toronto, for those outside B.C.. All content related matters are handled exclusively by the Office of Cultural Affairs at the City of Vancouver.
